February Title: Love Makes A Family

Messages

The most important thing about a family is the love that binds the people together.

All families are different and that diversity is something to be celebrated.

Activity

Choose one of the activities in the book to do together: build a tent and read in it, have a tea party with stuffed animals, jump in puddles or put on a play or puppet show.

Discussion Questions

What do you notice about the families in the book?

How are these families similar or different to yours or families you know?

How can you show love in your family?
