March Title: Look What I Found in the Woods

Messages

Exploring and learning in nature helps children develop curious minds.

Leave no trace. Never pick from trees or flowers, or harm any animals.

Activity

Take a nature walk. Look at the shapes of trees. Feel the texture of the bark. Notice different seeds and leaves that have fallen from the tree.

Discussion Questions

What types of trees are around your house? Evergreen? Deciduous?

What did you learn about nature from this book?

Why is it important to leave no trace when exploring?
